

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE BALLET

Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) ballet program is designed to provide fun and enjoyment that are relevant to young children development stages.

A carefully-planned program, RAD not only provide high standard dance training, it also develops physical and structural skills, stamina, creativity, expression, and musicality. All are beneficial to their continuous development in life and in dance.

RAD certified instructor, Terry Wong- McDonnell, RAD RTS, ARAD is qualified to teach young children in a fun and safe way through the Academy's classical ballet syllabus. The program while focused on classical ballet, also includes "Free Movement" and "Character Section" through the Grade progressions in order to enrich students' knowledge and experience with other dance genres.

RAD curriculum is being taught to 250,000 students each year in 80 countries throughout the world.

Terry has experience teaching ballet in the UK and Philippines, and is excited to bring her dance instruction to Sausalito as the first RAD instructor in the Northern Bay Area.

Students enrolled are required to wear uniform with net hair. For uniform, please contact D'Lynnes Dancewear, 1137 Fourth Street, San Rafael.
