The History of Caledonia Street: Golfers, Gangsters and Garages

Join Sausalito resident Mike Moyle for a historical tour down Caledonia Street. Using historical photos, Mike will highlight the major changes to the street and its buildings over the years, as well as some of the characters who have lived and worked there. Remember the Eight Ball Bowling Alley, Budworth's Store and Gatsby's? Those are just a few of the establishments that dotted the street over the years. Mike's presentation will be in conjunction with a walking tour of Caledonia Street the following day, organized by the Sausalito Historical Society.

Friday, April 8 at 7:00 p.m.

The Ships of San Francisco Bay

Have you ever wondered about the different types of commercial ships that ply the waters of the San Francisco Bay? Captain Craig Thomas will be our field guide to the freighters, tankers, tugs, car carriers and container ships that pass through Sausalito's "backyard." We'll also follow a typical voyage of a tanker and container ship into and out of the Bay. Before coming ashore to work for Hess Oil, Mobil and Bunkers Gibraltar Ltd., Captain Thomas worked at sea in positions that ranged from Third Officer to Master. Today, he is the president and founder of Sausalito-based Agile Marine.

Friday, April 15 at 7:00 p.m.

Remembering Evan Connell

Join us for a special program dedicated to the memory of author and editor Evan Connell, perhaps best known for his novels Mrs. Bridge and Mr. Bridge. As a contributor and later co-editor of Contact Magazine, Connell was a member of the local "Algonquin Circle" of writers and editors who met regularly in the late '50s and early '60s at Sausalito's No Name Bar. Sitting at the table reserved for the group, Evan was a commanding though often silent figure in the company of habitual talkers. The program will feature readings from Connell's works and reminiscences from his friends, including Bill Kirsch, Rick Seymour and Neil Davis.

~~Saturday, April 23 at 7:00 p.m.~~

~~Maligrad Contemporary Dance Company~~

~~POSTPONED UNTIL FALL 2016~~

~~Contemporary dance comes to the Sausalito Library with a special performance by the Maligrad Contemporary Dance Company, directed by Sausalito resident Molly Fletcher Lynch. Maligrad's aesthetic tends toward the highly physical while delicately stringing together a conceptual framework, delivered through a carefully articulated movement vocabulary.~~

Friday, April 29 at 7:00 p.m.

Behind the Bark: Sea Lions and the State of Our Coastal Waters

What can sea lions teach us about the state of coastal California fisheries? It won't surprise you that they can teach us plenty. But, what do they have to tell us about cancer? Disturbingly, there's a tale to tell there as well. Dr. Jeff Boehm, veterinarian and Executive Director of The Marine Mammal Center, will describe the work of this non-profit hospital for seals and sea lions located in the Marin Headlands and explain the connection between its patients and our understanding of the health of our oceans.
